I am a member of a group on facebook and would share it there

I review on both Goodreads and Amazon and will paste to various Amazon sites - Canada for example if I feel it appropriate.

Depends on where I buy the book

Amazon UK and Goodreads

My new book blog will take priority, then I'll do the others after that - UK if a British author, plus US if I have time, and if they are Canadian or Australasian on the Amazon sites for those territories

Wherever the author publishes and says they want the review left.

Adult books get a review on Amazon UK, YA on a dedicated review blog I contribute to and on Goodreads.

I tend not to leave reviews, but I do wax lyrical if I have read a good book, Twitter and on my own blog and newsletter.
